It's another u-turn in Whitehall farce

EXCLUSIVE

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

HAVING rejected his own Government's decision not to give funding to a community project, Government Minister Andrew Stunell has now overturned his own U-turn.

The bombshell news came in an email leaked to Luton on Sunday.

Liberal Democrat Mr Stunell had overturned the current Government's decision to refuse the money sought for the Organisation Workshop by project Marsh Farm Outreach CIC (MFO) after campaigners from the scheme protested to him personally.

Now he has changed his mind again after LoS had revealed that MFO was in liquidation at the time he met the campaigners.

In July this year the application for the project, for the start of a workshop which was designed to create 67 jobs and new businesses, was rejected by the Government.

Following this rejection, members of MFO camped outside a church in Mr Stunell's constituency, in August, in order to lobby the Minister. They convinced Mr Stunell to overturn his Government's decision, but he was not aware that MFO was in liquidation at that time.

A winding up order was made against MFO on July 28 and, as a result, the Marsh Farm Community Development Trust, which acts as the umbrella organisation for these projects, did not believe MFO had the authority to sign the contract.

The Government has now said it will not support the project, even though MFO is no longer in liquidation.

Following an appeal at the High Court in London two weeks ago, Marsh Farm Outreach CIC (MFO) was successful in its appeal to have its winding-up order temporarily rescinded pending a further hearing. The leaked email was from Lysle Osborne, NDC programme director, at MFCDT, and was sent anonymously to this newspaper.

It stated 'I have been informed by CLG and GO East of Andrew Stunell's, the NDC Minister, view of the OW project.

'He is uncomfortable with the financial liabilities of our project deliverer, Marsh Farm Outreach (MFO). It is his opinion that the MFO financial position increases the risk to the project to a level that is unacceptably high.

'He will not therefore support the scheme in its current format.

'The OW project requires a 24-week delivery period. We now have only 21 weeks left for project delivery within the NDC programme.

'There is, therefore, no time now for MFCDT to redesign the project, commission and set up a new delivery mechanism/body.

'MFO is seeking an audience with Andrew Stunell to allay any fears he may have about the organisation's financial status.

'Unless the minister has a change of view the project will not be able to continue.' LoS also understands that MFO owes MFCDT £22,000 in rent and MFO will be taken to court over this.

A spokesman for the MFCDT said: "The non-payment of rent by Marsh Farm Outreach CIC is

LoS says

YOU could not make this up.

For more than three weeks this newspaper has been trying to get a comment from Andrew Stunell, Minister for Communities and Local Government.

This is over the fact he personally overturned a previous decision by his department not to award £800,000 for a Marsh Farm outreach project.

He agreed this while the project organisers, MFO CIC, was in liquidation, which could have been easily checked.

It was suspended for two weeks, during which time the liquidation order was rescinded. However, there were conditions to the order.

Now he has overturned his decision to overturn the previous verdict and will not be giving the project the cash.

So a long-awaited project bites the dust – unless, of course, he changes his mind again.

We have asked Mr Stunell why he overturned the decision of his department, what were the reasons for the project being originally refused, and what are the conditions attached by the courts to the rescinding of the winding-up order.

We have asked Mr Stunell for a personal comment.

We have been met with a wall of silence.

Contrast this reality with statements recently made by Mr Stunell.

Mr Stunell said the Department for Communities and Local Government will publish details of everything that is spent over £500.

He continued: "Local people should be able to hold politicians and public bodies to account over how their hard-earned cash is being spent, and how decisions are made on their behalf.

"They can only do that effectively if they have the information they need at their

HOSPITAL ISOLATION MEASURES REMAIN
ISOLATION measures are still in place at Luton & Dunstable Hospital after two babies and their mother were diagnosed with bacterial infections last week. But the L&D says there have been no more infections of the PVL Staphylococcus aureus strain which was also found in two other newborns. It is a bacterium that is commonly carried by 25-30 per cent of the population, and may be found in the nose or the skin.

The hospital has taken several actions to protect the health of babies, families and staff including isolating affected babies from others, enhanced infection control and screening all babies in the unit for PVL Staph.aureus.

EMPTY HOUSE OWNERS WARNED OF SALES
OWNERS of the 2,313 currently empty homes across Central Bedfordshire may be forced to sell up if they don't bring them back to life. However, council bosses have said a forced sale or compulsory purchase order is a 'last resort'. The draft Empty Homes Strategy 2010-2015 by Central Bedfordshire Council, which went to a scrutiny committee on Monday, is aimed at bringing 1,160 of the homes - which have been vacant for six months or more - back into use. If the programme is given the thumbs-up by the council's executive committee on November 2, the cash-strapped authority could spend up to £160,000 a year on the plans.

NHS bill for agency staff and consultants is £4.4m

HEALTH consultants and agency staff have cost taxpayers more than £4.4 million in the last two years.

Last year alone, NHS Bedfordshire spent more than £1.5m on employing a number of agency staff, mostly to cover vacant posts while permanent staff were being recruited.

The figures, revealed after Luton on Sunday submitted a Freedom of Information Act request, show a staggering amount of money spent during the toughest of economic times. The most expensive individual was the interim head of mental health commissioning who covered secondment at a cost of £141,000 over two years.

The biggest cost was £565,000 spent throughout the year on admin agency staff. Between 2009/10, the cost of NHS consultants was more than £1 million.

A spokesman for NHS Bedfordshire said: "NHS Bedfordshire is actively reducing its spending on agency staff and consultants as part of its work to reduce management and overhead costs."

Money spent on consultants and agency staff last year topped more than £2.5m, an increase of around £770,000 on the previous year.

Fiona McEvoy, campaign manager of The TaxPayers' Alliance, said: "This goes to show how costly it is to hire in external staff, and many taxpayers will be concerned to learn that this practice is diverting millions from NHS budgets."

Council's cuts will cost over 100 jobs

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@Lutononsunday.co.uk

MORE than 100 jobs will be lost at Central Bedfordshire Council as it bids to plug its budget gap.

The council faces a £36 million budget cut over the next three years and has been forced to make cuts as a result.

Central Beds has been planning for next year's budget since April and after hearing the Comprehensive Spending Review (CSR) on Wednesday it said it was well prepared for the cuts.

There will not be an increase in council tax.

Cllr Maurice Jones (right) said: "We will have to reshape services. Schools are moving more towards becoming academies.

"Also, as part of the Big Society, adult social care will be changing and care in the community will be more important.

"We are going to have to change the way we do things. We have to deal with that loss of money and jobs will have to be lost and we are looking at more than 100."

Last month Luton on Sunday exclusively revealed 400-500 jobs will be axed at Luton Borough Council.

A Town Hall spokeswoman said: "It was clear from the Government's Spending Review that there will be a fundamental change in the way Luton will be funded in future.

"The council has been proactively planning to cope with the potential budget reductions and there was nothing in Wednesday's announcement to change our planning assumptions.

"But the devil is in the detail and we will have a clearer picture once we've had a chance to study the Government's specific figures for Luton which are expected in early December."

Last two weeks to nominate Luton's best

THERE are less than two weeks to get in your nominations for Luton's unsung heroes in the Luton's Best Awards 2010.

Luton's Best Awards are being hosted by the Luton Forum in partnership with Luton Borough Council to recognise outstanding individuals and organisations who give their time and work hard, sometimes against the odds, to make our town such a great place to live, learn, work and have fun.

There are awards for individuals and groups, for people working in the public sector and for companies who play an important part in their community. We know that they are out there we just need you to tell us about them!

If you know someone who has given their time over the years to help others and make a positive contribution to the community then the Lifetime Achievement, award sponsored by the Luton Gateway, is the best way to say thank you for their efforts. Achievements can be in all areas from volunteering to sport, fundraising to business.

We are also looking for individuals and organisations that have made an outstanding contribution to promoting Luton as a town to be proud of with our Think Luton, Think Success Award, sponsored by the Luton Hoo Hotel. This award is to recognise those who have made a valuable contribution to creating a positive image for the town.

Don't forget that all nominees are entered into a draw to win two tickets to the prestigious awards event itself at Luton Hoo on December 2.

Nominations for all 16 categories are open until Friday, November 5.

For full details of the awards, the criteria and how to enter visit www.luton.gov.uk/lutonsbestawards or contact Sinead McNamara on 01582 546265 or email sinead.mcnamara@luton.gov.uk.

Alternatively pick up a leaflet from the town hall, libraries and public areas across the town.

currently the subject of ongoing legal proceedings in the Luton County Court.

"It would, therefore, be inappropriate for MFCDDT to make any further comments at this time."

With regards to the leaked email the spokesman added: "We cannot comment further until we have received official notification from the minister."

A Communities and Local Government spokeswoman, said: "We were unaware of the financial and legal position of Marsh Farm Outreach, when the project was first approved.

"This now represents too great a risk to £840,000 public funds. We support what the project was trying to deliver, and have not stopped Marsh Farm New Deal for Communities from exploring whether there is an alternative delivery model that mitigates the risk to public funds.

"The decision on how to spend NDC funding is a local one. If the project does not go ahead, Marsh Farm NDC can use the £840,000 on other projects for the benefit of the local community, within this financial year. Despite pressures on public funding, no money has been withdrawn from Marsh Farm NDC."

Glenn Jenkins, spokesman from the MFO was not available for comment.

fingertips. This greater transparency and accountability will help to reduce wasteful expenditure and allow councils to become more aware of best practice in other areas.

"Transparency is key to our ambitions for the Big Society and decentralisation.

"Liberal Democrats should welcome these moves. We've long campaigned for open and transparent government.

"From the Freedom of Information Act to making MPs' expense claims public, Liberal Democrats have a long and proud history of fighting against obfuscation and concealment at all levels."

Fine words, Mr Stunell, sadly not matched by your deeds.

The people of Luton deserve better than this.

They deserve answers and they expect them from you.

Police arrest teenage 'gang' on suspicion of interfering with cars

A GROUP of boys were arrested after acting suspiciously around cars. Police officers picked up five 14-18-year-olds in Halleys Way, Houghton Regis, on suspicion of vehicle interference on Tuesday evening. They were taken to Dunstable Police Station and released on police bail pending further inquiries. Detective Inspector Greg Horsford said: "Due to the rapid response in Houghton Regis, officers were able to locate a suspected group of boys and make a further five arrests following a report of vehicle crimes in the area."

Councillor answers critics on question of her competence

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

STRING OF DEGREES:
Cllr Morel Benard

A LABOUR councillor who switched to the Conservative Party failed her test to reveal how 'competent' she was, we can reveal.

Borough councillor Morel Benard had stated 'personal reasons' for leaving the party, but Luton on Sunday has learned she made the decision to deselect herself after she did not pass an interview and test process which asks questions about the role of a councillor.

Cllr Benard, who has represented Luton Borough Council's Saints ward since 2007, will now continue her role as a Tory councillor.

A Labour Party insider told this newspaper: "Obviously every party has different processes they go through but traditionally our party has a very stringent process to make sure everyone who stands in the name of Labour is capable of doing the job."

"Some of the questions are about the history of the party, but most of the questions in the test are about the role of the council and what the councillor would do in certain situations."

"Cllr Benard did not get through this process and she chose to deselect herself."

Cllr Benard said: "I do not want to make a comment about this. I think if people want to say that I am incompetent then they are free to do so."

"If they say I am then I must be incompetent – and that is tongue in cheek, saying I can't read or write and am incompetent."

"I have a string of degrees."

"If they are saying I am not representative of my ward then I must be. I am continuing to do the work I was doing before."

According to sources there are at least two more Labour councillors who have come under fire for their representation of the party as a councillor since they were elected.

Their current positions are under review and if the party said it thinks they are still not the best person for the job then they will be deselected and will not be able to stand in next year's local elections.

Two arrested as kerb crawling project starts

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO women were arrested on suspicion of managing a brothel, on Thursday night.

The warrants follow on from Bedfordshire Police's crackdown on kerb crawlers in the High Town area of Luton which was launched on the same morning.

Using information and acting on the concerns of residents, police raided two properties in Elizabeth Street and Cowper Street in Luton.

A 53-year-old woman at the Elizabeth Street address and a 45-year-old woman at Cowper Street were both arrested on suspicion of managing a brothel.

A third woman was also arrested on immigration issues and has been handed over to the Immigration Service.

After a search of the Elizabeth Street house, information led officers to a further address in Flamstead, Hertfordshire, where a large cannabis factory was found and a further two arrests were made.

The arrests came as part of a crackdown by police, Luton Borough Council and residents to find a long term solution of kerb crawlers in the town.

Passers-by will now see a large banner in Dudley Street, Luton, and ten small metal signs attached to lampposts in the High Town area.

The signs carry the same message and are to be placed where sex workers have been most commonly seen. The campaign will last about eight to ten weeks and alongside it enforcement work against kerb crawlers will be continuing.

Police Sergeant Michelle Moore said: "The quality of life for those residents who live close to these properties had been undermined and these arrests would not have been as successful as they were without members of the local community showing courage and coming forward with information."

"I would like to thank them for their help."

"This was an intelligence led operation dealing directly with the concerns of the local community and it took place as a direct response to their concerns."

"It is anticipated further operations such as this will take place in the future to make Luton a safer place for people to live, work and visit."

Tennyson admits to illegal work

A SELF-EMPLOYED plumber has been prosecuted for continuing to carry out illegal work on gas boilers despite orders to stop.

James Tennyson, 55, of Rutland Crescent, Luton, admitted breaching health and safety laws when he appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court on Thursday.

The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) had warned Tennyson in 2003 about carrying out work on gas fittings when he was not registered to do so, a legal requirement for anyone carrying out such work.

However, HSE learned earlier this year that Tennyson had again worked illegally on gas appliances.

Legitimate gas engineers told HSE the plumber had left gas boilers in dangerous conditions at two homes in the area - one in Polegate, Luton, and the other in Houghton Regis. Magistrates ordered Tennyson to carry out 180 hours of community service and ordered him to pay £250 costs. He had already received a formal notice prohibiting him from continuing with gas work until competent enough to do so.

After the sentencing, HSE inspector Stephen Manley said: "Working with gas appliances is difficult, specialised and potentially very dangerous. Only qualified and registered engineers should attempt it. "HSE will not hesitate to prosecute those who break the law in this way."

Tennyson admitted two breaches of Regulation 3(3) of the Gas Safety (Installation & Use) Regulations 1998 and one breach of Section 3(2) of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974.

New development plan will not go west

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON
christinajohnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

A COMMITTEE passed development plans on Friday which do not include building towards the west of Luton.

At the joint meeting, six Luton Borough councillors and six Central Bedfordshire councillors reviewed the strategy for proposals for 15,000 new homes in south Bedfordshire between 2011 and 2026.

The core plans include 134 hectares of employment land which would result in more than 28,000 jobs being created.

Infrastructure will also benefit from the new plan with £50 million of private investment being included which will contribute towards the A5/M1 link road and policy has also been included to protect green belt land from development.

Luton Liberal Democrat group leader David Franks, who sits on the committee, said: "The core strategy involves a housing development to the north of Luton and no development to the west of Luton."

"Now this will go to a public enquiry run by a Government planning inspector some time in the summer next year. A Government minister will then make the final decision."

An amendment was moved during the meeting to add the following words - which refer to the Bushwood development - to the recommendation: "To recognise that no completely effective solution to the housing problems in the area can be delivered without some additional sustainable development to the west of Luton."

However, with four Labour and two Liberal Democrat Luton members voting for this, and six Conservatives voting against, the chairman, Tom Nicols, did not use the casting vote but declared the amendment not carried.

According to John Boyle, the director of the Bushwood proposals to the west of Luton, their masterplan is based on three key principles:

- Delivering new jobs and affordable homes for the area

- Delivering leisure facilities through regeneration opportunities including a new community stadium

- Minimising impacts on communities by delivering permanent green separation between Caddington and Slip End and Bushwood

Mr Boyle said: "All Luton Borough councillors on the joint Committee recognised the west of Luton and the 7,000 supporters now firmly behind our project."

"We feel that our proposals will bring enormous benefit to the area and in these times of public sector cuts we have a very strong argument."

"The west of Luton can deliver housing and employment with massive community benefits that are deliverable, whereas alternative options for growth to the north of Luton, Dunstable and Houghton Regis are still reliant on a considerable amount of taxpayers' money."

"We will be presenting our views at the public enquiry."

Concern as cost of event rockets

THE cost of Luton's annual fireworks display next month has been branded 'excessive' at more than £1,000 per minute, we can reveal.

Luton Borough Council has forked out £28,000 for the 20 minute event at £1,400 per 60 seconds.

Thousands will attend the free November 6 display, which this year will be provided by private firm Alchemy Fireworks at Pope's Meadow, in Old Bedford Road.

But the Town Hall - which Luton on Sunday exclusively revealed last month was axing between 400-500 jobs - has come under fire for paying too much for the event.

A spokesman for The TaxPayers' Alliance said: "Residents value things like fireworks displays and Christmas decorations but the council is still obliged to keep costs down, particularly in light of looming cuts.

"At £1,000 per minute, this just looks excessive at a time when families are still struggling and frontline services are under threat.

"It's really just about common sense and keeping all spending proportionate and appropriate."

A council spokeswoman said: "Our aim is to encourage people to attend our safe and controlled firework display rather than setting off their own fireworks in the park, or worse being in the firework fall out zone where they could be placing themselves at risk.

"Under these circumstances the most cost effective and safe solution is a free event."

Chance to hear about group's Palestinian experience

A PROTEST group will hold a meeting on Wednesday to hear news from members who have just returned from Palestine.

Luton Friends of Battir, which was formed to raise awareness of the plight of the Palestinian village, will hear from four people who have been there for a week.

The group helps Palestinians caught in the middle of the country's ongoing problems with neighbours Israel.

Friends of Battir member Stephen Coghlan said: "The group have been there for a week and at the meeting people will have a chance to hear back from what they have seen.

"They have been there before and they have taken money and medical supplies for kindergartens and schools.

"Anyone is welcome to come along to the meeting and hear the eye witness accounts from Palestine."

The meeting will be at Bury Park Community Centre in Dunstable Road, Luton at 7pm.

FEELING FESTIVE: Gavin Shuker MP wants your help

Get your designs in for Gavin

TIME is nearly up for any youngsters who want to enter Gavin Shuker's Christmas card design competition.

The Luton South MP has asked the town's kids to create his personal festive card this year.

The competition, in association with Luton on Sunday and our sister paper, Luton & Dunstable Express, will see the talented winner invited to Westminster with their family for a special Christmas dinner in the Houses of Parliament.

Mr Shuker, who became one of the UK's youngest MPs when he won the hotly contested Luton South seat vacated by Margaret Moran in May's general election, said: "I was able to order House of Commons cards but they are just not really very me, they are pretty old fashioned, with old paintings on and I just wanted something that's a bit more contemporary, forward thinking for this year's Christmas cards."

If you are aged 14 or under, you could be in with a chance of winning.

The rules for the competition are as follows:

- Pictures must be on an A4 piece of paper
- Entrants must be 14 years or under
- Envelopes must be clearly marked 'Christmas Card Competition'

- The closing date is next Sunday, October 31
- The judges' decision is final

The A4 designs should be sent to: Gavin Shuker MP, House of Commons, London, SW1A 0AA.

Call for cameras on 'speedy' road

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

SPEEDING cars along Leagrave Road are a 'danger' - but nothing will be done about it.

At a recent Luton Borough Council meeting it was decided that another zebra crossing should not be put on the road.

But two businessmen who work at Jimmy's Tyres, on Leagrave Road, said it needs speed cameras to help solve the problem.

Arfat Riaz said: "This road is awful, we get so many speeding cars. There are accidents here nearly every week but they aren't reported."

"We need something to be done here. Speed cameras would be ideal. People just come down here so fast. You can hear them getting faster at night."

Mohammed Jamil said: "It's way overdue having something done. I think about 600 people signed a petition but they have not been listened to."

"This zebra crossing is bad, it's right next to the junction so you can't see people when they want to cross it."

"They need to have speed cam-

PLEA: Arfat Riaz and Mohammed Jamil

eras along the road. It would stop so many accidents, it's dangerous."

Councillor Tahir Khan said about the meeting: "We wanted to look at that road after a number of things happened on it."

"A zebra crossing is one of the options but I think speed cameras are needed on that part of the road. But unfortunately the new coalition Government has cut the funding for speed cameras."

"We are left without the option to do anything for speed cameras. Something does need to be done and we will be discussing the possible options."

Between 2007 and 2009 there were three serious injury collisions on Leagrave Road involving four people. There were no fatalities in those years.

This year, there was one young girl who was seriously injured and two men who were killed in accidents on the road.

After a survey by the council, on average 11,132 vehicles use Leagrave Road daily and 88 per cent were recorded as being within the 30mph speed limit.

About 95 per cent of the total were travelling within the police prosecution speed of 35mph and less than one per cent were exceeding 40mph.

A spokeswoman for Bedfordshire and Luton Casualty Reduction Partnership said: "Bedfordshire Police and Luton Borough Council have investigated the vehicle speeds and the circumstances of recent casualties on Leagrave Road, Luton and found that it does not meet the criteria for the installation of fixed speed cameras or the deployment of regular mobile speed enforcement."

"This is entirely unrelated to changes in funding for safety cameras."

Addict burglar told 'it is up to you' as he's jailed

A BURGLAR was jailed for three years on Wednesday after stealing a flat screen television and a DVD player from a house.

Parvinder Lagah was seen acting suspiciously at the house in Beechwood Road, Luton, on April 12 by a neighbour, Luton Crown Court heard.

Prosecutor Geoffrey Porter said that when it was discovered that there had been a break in the neighbour was able to pick out 28-year-old Lagah at an identity parade. He was arrested and said he had been in the area carrying out garden clearance work.

Lagah, of High Town Road, Luton, pleaded guilty on the day of his trial last month and returned to court for sentencing.

Mr Porter said Lagah had a long list of previous convictions, including burglaries of homes.

Defence barrister Kate Chidgey asked for Lagah to be placed on a drug rehabilitation course.

She said his crimes were the result of addiction and while he was held on remand in prison she said he had been making progress and wanted to give up drugs.

She said he had taken a voluntary drug test, which had proved negative.

But Recorder Ian Baker refused saying Lagah had been given chances in the past.

Jailing him he said: "You have made an effort to give up drugs."

"I hope you continue to make efforts. Nobody else can do it. It is up to you."

Mount facts and figures?

SIR - Having read your paper and Your Letters on October 17, I have to agree with the comments made therein.

We have a situation at The Mount which reportedly needs £100,000 to stay open, and a faceless wonder who receives £100,000 per annum.

Who is this person? Who had ever heard of him or his previous miracles? From your newspaper I see that his name is Trevor Holden.

Are we likely to see him at Kingsway depot at 5.30am when the workforce are starting up the vehicles ready for a days work? Is he likely to finish his shift at 9pm, have his dinner, go to bed, and then be called out at midnight to go gritting?

Will he have to go out and wash vomit and wine from some poor soul, who having worked all his life, has now ended up in a sorry state?

The heaviest thing this person is likely to hold will be a biro in a nice warm office.

One hundred council taxpayers in Band B pay just for his wages – no services... or anything else.

Shame on you Mr Holden and those who selected you, and there's a thought, how much do they receive (no earn)?

Liberals protect students

SIR - Many people will recall during the election campaign Nick Clegg and many other high-profile Liberal Democrat Members of Parliament posing for all the world to see in front of pledge cards, signed personally by them all stating very clearly 'no' to tuition fees.

This must have appealed to many students and of course the parents of students who assist with such payments.

I wonder, however, how many students and their families feel now, having witnessed after the election Vince Cable (yes he signed the pledge card standing at the dispatch box in the House of Commons) trying to justify why he and the entire Lib Dem

Parliamentary Party are now prepared to have total disregard for anything they have said to the electorate prior to the election.

Such a package for students will saddle them with debt many years into their working lives.

We, as a society, must surely take the view that investment into future generations in key areas of our industries and economy is one well worth paying for. Otherwise we end up with only having students whose families can afford the fees and many are simply brushed aside and their ambitions and aspirations are just a pipe dream.

How is that equality? How does that give work-life chances to all?

The challenge is very clear to those locally within the Liberal Democrats – you canvassed and campaigned on that pledge, it was a key part of your manifesto.

Are you going to sit back and watch yet another manifesto commitment become the victim of a coalition where the Tories will sit quietly smirking away and you are manipulated yet again?

The Liberal Party is very clear on this issue and at our Party Assembly (on October 16 in Wolverhampton) we passed a motion with the main thrust being 'The Liberal Party

Care home closure concerns

SIR - A Mr Peter Knights, whose wife is a resident at The Mount, a Luton Borough Council care home under threat of closure, has had to find this out through your newspaper's coverage.

So much for the council hype about consulting with all those involved.

This really is appalling and is made worse by the fact that Mr Knights, who is 80 years of age, is only too aware of the 'detrimental' effect such a move would have on his wife if it goes ahead, not to mention the effect it will likely have on him.

Both Mr Knights and Sandy McDowell, whose mother Violet Chater MBE is also a resident, are devastated and duly concerned by such a recommendation, especially as by all accounts they are highly satisfied with the care their loved ones are receiving at The Mount.

Contrast this with the privately run Griffin Care Centre in Luton officially branded 'poor' by the Care Quality Commission as reported in your newspaper on October 17.

Forget the fact that a lack of en-suite rooms at The Mount was apparently cited by the council as a reason for closing it.

The Griffin Care Centre has been operating with sub-standard care areas. Just to be clear those areas are basic health, personal care and protection.

The awful reality of this situation is that if the proposed closure of The Mount goes ahead some of the residents at The Mount could well land up being moved on to the Griffin Care Centre.

I am reliably informed that a Dementia Strategy is in the process of being written up by an outside consultant to the council.

Obviously the council does not employ anyone (in spite of its existing management team) who is capable or competent enough to write this, or else they could have saved the council a lot of money.

What exactly is the policy of the council, NHS Luton (or as it is otherwise known the Primary Care Trust – PCT) and South Essex Partnership (SEPT), which now run what was Luton and Bedfordshire Mental Health Partnership (BLPT), for the elderly and elderly mentally ill in Luton?

It would appear that they have set a course to discharge responsibility for providing care as we have known it and are handing it over to the private/voluntary sector, selling off buildings and taking on instead a monitoring role.

Unfortunately this role does not seem to be working regardless of the action plan put together jointly by this so-called multi-agency group.

No, it all sounds very piecemeal and disconnected and is frankly disturbing and worrying for the future unless of course someone can convince the public otherwise.

Geraldine Mooney-Tassell
Field End Close, Stopsley

restates its belief that higher education tuition fees should be free to students and funded out of general taxation.

'Assembly is fully aware of the present economic climate, however it believes that the education of future generations should not be fettered by the ability to pay back tuition fees but rather should be prioritised ahead of spending billions on nuclear weapons, ahead of cuts in corporation tax and ahead of bankers' bonuses.'

Peter Burrows
Bedfordshire Liberal Party

Aquatic Centre problem

SIR - I am sure that the Luton Aquatic Centre, to be built on Stopsley Common, will be a wonderful landmark for the town.

But I don't think enough thought has gone into the traffic problems at Stopsley roundabout.

Cllr Hazel Simmons said the town is on the move. Yes it will soon absorb the lovely little village of Stopsley.

She wants to concern herself on all the boarded up buildings that make Luton centre look more like a slum town.

As well as Stopsley roundabout, how on earth will the small roundabout at Round Green cope with all the extra traffic?

Does Luton Borough Council know, or even care? I doubt it.

When David Cameron's cuts start to bite, especially the defence ones, don't forget where the blame lay. Yes - the banks.

They are still earning huge salaries and big fat bonuses after robbing us taxpayers.

The Taliban can go home now, or take a holiday. David Cameron has done their job for them. He is destroying this country's Armed Forces.

A fund for loved ones

SIR - The memory of a loved one is something to cherish and at World Cancer Research Fund (WCRF) we have found that a growing number of family and friends are choosing to keep that memory alive through our Forever Fund.

This special fund allows someone to set up a permanent reminder of a lost friend or relative while helping build a future free from cancer by contributing to vital research and education programmes.

After setting up a tribute page which can include a personal message to the memory of a loved one as well as a photograph – people can invite friends and family to visit the page and make a donation in memory.

As increasing numbers of charities offer memorial gifts, we have found that many are particularly attracted to WCRF because of our focus on preventing cancer.

We fund scientific research into how cancer risk can be reduced as well as education programmes to raise awareness that about a third of the most common cancers could be prevented through diet, physical activity and weight.

It is this kind of work that gives people readily available advice on how to cut their risk from cancer.

If you want to find out more information about the options and support we offer please visit our website at www.foreverfund.org or call 020 7343 4205.

'Common sense prevails'

SIR - I am writing to thank readers for taking part in our 'Count Epilepsy Out' campaign earlier this year, which highlighted the potential dangers of prescribing generic anti-epileptic drugs (AEDs) to people with epilepsy.

The Government has just announced that it will not be making generic substitutions of NHS prescription drugs compulsory – a move that has delighted the National Society for Epilepsy and is good news for anyone with the condition.

Cutting costs by swapping a branded AED to a cheaper generic version of the same drug could provoke seizures or side effects and actually end up costing the Government more money than it saves.

Just one breakthrough seizure – which is when someone whose seizures are usually controlled by epilepsy drugs has an unexpected seizure – is devastating for the individual and may cause serious injury and harm, rob someone of their driving licence and affect their job.

Support from local people on this issue was vital, with many sending campaign postcards and letters to the Minister of State for Health highlighting the fact that changing drugs could provoke seizures or side effects.

Their support has contributed to the Government's rejection of the scheme.

It is a relief to see that patient safety and common sense have prevailed on this occasion.

The National Society for Epilepsy will be keeping a close eye on any future plans for cost cutting of drugs to ensure that people with epilepsy are fully protected.

If you would like further information please visit our website www.epilepsysociety.org.uk

Once again, I thank your readers for their help and hope they will continue to support us on issues which matter to the 465,000 people in this country who have epilepsy.

Angie King
Press officer for National Society for Epilepsy

Lest we forget... animals

SIR - As Remembrance Day approaches, it is important not only to remember the human victims of war, but also the animals who have been used for detection, scouting and rescue, as messengers, as beasts of burden and on the frontline.

Vast numbers of animals – in farms and zoos, for instance – continue to be innocent bystander victims when conflicts start.

Meanwhile, in secret UK Ministry of Defence Research laboratories, thousands of animals suffer and die each year when they are infected with biological or chemical agents, or deliberately shot or otherwise harmed.

To commemorate all the animal victims, Animal Aid has issued a purple poppy, which can be worn alongside the traditional red or white ones, as a reminder that both humans and animals have been – and continue to be – victims of war.

The purple poppies cost £1 each (including postage and packing) and are available from www.animalaid.org.uk or by calling 01732 364546, ext 231.

A free copy of Animal Aid's colour booklet, Animals: The hidden victims of war, is available on request.

Big Knit nears fruition

SIR - I'm writing to remind readers that there are only a few days left until the closing date for all little woolly hats knitted for the Big Knit 2010 to be in – Wednesday, October 27.

I'm helping Age UK to call on all knitters to get out their needles for one final push to help raise £200,000 to help keep older people warmer this winter.

People across the UK are supporting The Big Knit 2010 by knitting little woolly hats which will sit on innocent smoothie bottles in Sainsbury's and Boots stores from November 3.

For each be-hatted smoothie sold, 25p will go to Age UK to help fund winter warmth projects.

All funds raised for Age UK will help fund projects aimed at promoting winter warmth for people in later life.

Winter can be hard in later life, with many older people suffering needlessly.

Age UK is working to ease the difficulties people face in winter by providing hot meals, electric blankets and information and advice on keeping well in winter.

For the hats you knit to raise funds locally, please send your completed hats to your local Age UK or Age Concern or call Age UK for more information on 0800 169 8787.

Media officer for Age UK

Pair given jail terms for 'violent' burglary

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

TWO men who threatened a man with an axe and knife before forcing him to hand over money have been jailed indefinitely.

Louis Woodcock and Daniel Dillon, both aged 22, were armed and clad in black balaclavas when they burst into a house in Linden Road, Dunstable on January 28 at midnight.

Daniel Fulcher was alone in the house and asleep, said prosecutor Maryam Syed at Luton Crown Court on Friday.

She told the court: "His bedroom door flew open and three men burst in."

"Dillon had a knife with an eight inch blade and Woodcock was holding an axe."

Another man who was wielding a baseball bat has pleaded guilty to aggravated burglary and will be sentenced later.

Miss Syed said he was the man who demanded money and struck out with the bat while the victim 'cowered' on the bed. His toe was fractured in the attack.

She said Dillon was waving the knife about, then held it pointing down towards the victim and threatened to stab him.

She said: "The victim was saying 'please don't hurt me, please go'."

Daniel Dillon

Louis Woodcock

They took about £600 from a safe in the bedroom and grabbed other property before leaving.

"He was very upset and shocked and dreaded to think what they would have done if he had not opened the safe."

She said Mr Fulcher believed he was targeted after he had been overheard in a pub talking about his winnings at a bookmakers.

Woodcock, of Ravenhill Way, Luton, who had a previous conviction for serious violence and Dillon of Abercorn Road, Luton, who had convictions for minor violence, both pleaded guilty to aggravated burglary.

They were both given indeterminate sentences for public protection, with Woodcock having to serve a minimum of four years in custody and Dillon three-and-a-half years. Pamela Brain defending Woodcock said he had conquered a drug and alcohol problem that had been behind his previous offence.

John Kearney for Dillon said he had been smoking too much cannabis at the time and struggling to find work.

They both said to the court that the two defendants were not so dangerous as to merit indeterminate sentences.

But Judge Jeffrey Burke QC said: "This was a pre-planned, armed and violent intrusion into a man's home. It is obvious that he was terrified."

"I have come to the conclusion that you pose a significant risk of harm to the public."

Defection of priests could spark end for Church of England

IT'S all the fault of women. Some 480 years ago the English church split from Rome and the Church of England was created. This was because the Catholic Church would not agree to annul the marriage between King Henry VIII and Catherine of Aragon, so Henry could marry Anne Boleyn. This itself was prompted by Henry's desire to sire a son and heir.

Now, nearly 500 years later, CofE parishes are considering defecting from their Anglican roots and joining, or should it be re-joining, Rome.

This is because their church has decided to allow women priests to become bishops.

Pope Benedict has made the offer of a safe harbour to all Anglican priests - I presume male - who are disaffected by this decision.

Should we care about the establishment, seen through their religion, fighting over who can run their churches? I have to be careful here, as I have been attacked recently for 'ranting' against religion, and not just in this country.

My infamy is spreading far and wide.

But there is a risk that any sizeable schism could see off the CofE and I think that would be a shame.

First of all, one of the great ironies in this tale of treaties torn up and heads chopped off, was that one of Henry's daughters, Elizabeth, became arguably this country's greatest monarch, which would not have happened if one of his six wives had produced a sturdy son.

As a footnote, it is worth mentioning that the architect of these changes for Henry VIII, and much else besides, was Thomas Cromwell, a commoner.

Those were the days, when great offices of state were held by the common man.

I also have to say that I see little wrong with having women bishops, if bishops there must be.

But over the centuries the CofE has become very English, in its charm, eccentricity and tolerance. While other religions hand down edicts and generally put the fear of God into their flock with tales of wrath and damnation, the CofE runs bazaars, marries people, baptises children and sees that all in their parish who need comforting are comforted.

In many rural communities it acts as a kind of unofficial social service, which may become even more important as Government cuts start to hurt.

So if another battle takes place between the Catholic and Anglican Church, not just Christianity might suffer but ordinary people as well.

So why doesn't someone put the kettle on (preferably not the woman priest) and they all have a chat about it in a civilised, Christian manner?

STILL the Marsh Farm funding project rumbles on. Now we know, thanks to a leaked email, that the Government is not going to give the money to the project. For a supposedly open Government knowing what it is doing, this has been completely farcical.

For the sake of the people of Luton and particularly those of Marsh Farm, it is time for answers on this no, yes, no, dithering Government's behaviour.

I believe both Luton's MPs, Gavin Shaker and Kelvin Hopkins, who must have a desire both for much needed finances to come to Marsh Farm and for openness and accountability on how such money is acquired and spent, should start asking questions about this saga.

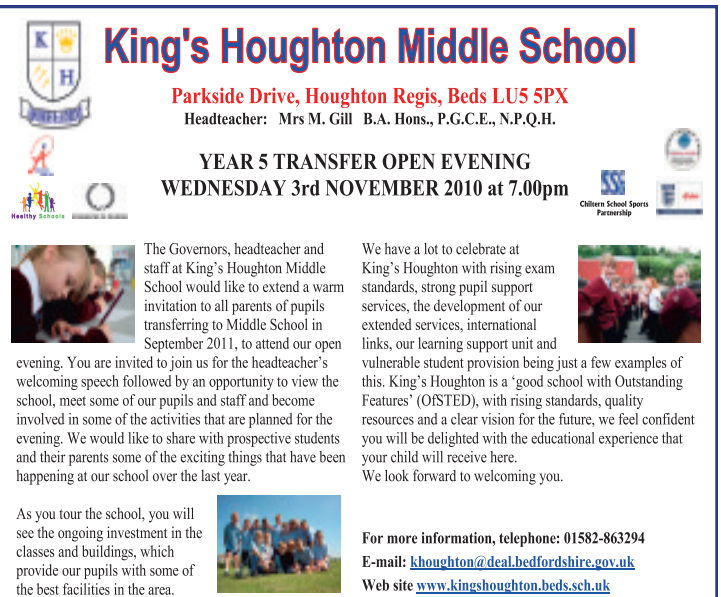

Both of them are trusted by Lutonians of whatever stripe and hopefully can find out what has been going on.

If anyone can, they can.

Care home closure

PLANS to close The Mount in Tennyson Road, Luton have come under much criticism, especially the detrimental effect these will have on the residents.

We exclusively revealed at the beginning of the month Luton Borough Council's decision to shut down the care home.

We were subsequently contacted by the families of two residents who were both upset to learn about the closure through Luton on Sunday rather than from the council.

Eighty-year-old Peter Knights says his wife, Rita, 77, has been very happy since she began living at the council-run dementia care home last November.

Sandy McDowell's mother Violet Chater, an ex-council employee, also faces being kicked out by the council which employed her as a lollipop lady for 40 years.

All 28 residents are threatened with relocation if it is decided to close down The Mount in February. Its 43 members of staff would also face losing their jobs.

It would cost at least £100,000 to bring the building up to standard and, in a year, savings of £604,000 would be made if the service was scrapped.

In the council's report on the care home, it stated: 'In reality The Mount is a complex, rambling building whose layout is not suited to its current role as a provider of dementia care services.'

'Dedicated council staff provide quality care. It is however

'COST-CUTTING' is the favoured word of the moment – with both central and local governments using it left, right and centre. In one of the latest moves by Luton Borough Council it is proposing to close down the only specialist dementia care centre in the town. SOPHIE SCOTT looks at the consequences.

becoming increasingly difficult to provide the levels of dignity, including respect of cultural needs and space, to provide high levels of personal care.

'Meeting the often challenging care needs of those with dementia will remain difficult within this building even if significant further investment were to be made.'

They say with 16 independent residential homes in Luton it presents an 'oversupply' and 'these additional beds could allow the authority to both improve the quality of care provided to the residents of Luton and potentially make efficiency savings.'

Laura Meadowcroft, the Alzheimer's Society's locality manager for East Anglia and Central, explained what moving the residents may do.

She said: "Our first concern would be for the residents. They should be at the centre of anything that happens. There have to be cuts, but something like this can have a very negative effect."

"People suffering from dementia need a stable and familiar environment, such as knowing the rooms, common room and also the staff who work with them. It can cause distress and increase confusion and it can even affect their health.

"So really we would say they should only be moved if it is in the person's best interests and it would mean they had a better quality of life."

Describing the plan to close The Mount as reckless and uncaring, leader of the Liberal Democrats David Franks says the Labour council is putting residents at risk and is placing a higher value on its money saving schemes than on the proper care of vulnerable elderly residents.

Mr Franks said: "When someone goes into a council-run elderly persons' residential home they, and their families, quite rightly expect that they will stay in the same home, with the same neighbours and caring staff, until the end of their days."

"This expectation should be respected and if there is a case to be made for closing The Mount then the closure should not take place while it still houses permanent residents."

"Meanwhile spare rooms should be used for short-term respite care for which there is a clear need."

"The decision by the Labour executive is not about caring for older people, it's about saving money.

"Just reading the paperwork tells you how much their decision is driven by their desire to raise some extra cash and the executive report strongly points out the sums that can be made by selling the site."

"To make some money they are forcing frail elderly people to move away from their friends and from the place which has been their home for years."

"The vacant sites of homes previously closed have been sold by Labour to raise cash. In contrast, the sites of the two homes closed by the previous Liberal Democrat administration were both used to provide brand new up to date extra-care sheltered schemes.

CONCERNED: Peter Knights

"This decision to close The Mount is a shameful abandonment of the council's duty to frail elderly people. It's a clear case of the Labour council putting money before people."

Writer and director Fitzroy Wilson said: "The play is set in Jamaica. It draws on Jamaica's rich musical heritage with popular songs written by Reggae superstar Bob Marley and other reggae artists. It also features popular Jamaican folk songs."

The Ashanti people handed down to us this brilliant folktale about the trickster. Songs often accompany the stories and have inspired many Jamaican folksongs. These stories continue to provide a moral foundation for the black community. Anancy existed from the time when deities, humans and animals conversed.

The play features Anancy the Spiderman who was brought from the west coast of Africa by the first slaves and went into business as the only therapy for three centuries of hideousness. He took on the trappings of the tribal oral historian. Anancy is a trickster; he often deceives and exploits his fellow creatures for his own benefit. Anancy's antics provoke laughter, while his quick wits and mystic power inspire awe.

TV cameras set to Zoo-m in on Whipsnade for documentary

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A TV documentary aiming to bring a unique insight into the daily life of staff and animals at Whipsnade Zoo will be aired next month.

For the first time in ten years, cameras have been given access to all areas for a behind the scenes look at the zoo as well as the world's oldest - London Zoo.

The three-part documentary entitled 'The Zoo' will begin on ITV1 on November 9.

The Zoological Society of London (ZSL), which invented the word 'zoo', has a collection of more than 21,000 wild animals at its two sites.

This series reveals what it means to be part of ZSL's dedicated team of 800 staff, including some of the world's best vets.

The series follows the emotionally intense, and at times heartbreaking experiences, of the devoted keepers who inevitably become very close to the animals in their care.

At Whipsnade, Rob Conachie watches nervously as his favourite Asian elephant goes into labour for the first time.

The staff share their close understanding of the habits and traits of the range of creatures housed at the zoo, as well as the quirks of their relationships.

Richard Denton, series producer, said: "Working on this project has been a revelation. I remember taking my kids to the zoo when they were small but I don't think I ever realised the work that really goes on here.

"It has been an extraordinary experience to go behind the scenes and share in both the triumphs and the disasters."

Zoological Director David Field says: "We invited the cameras to come behind the scenes and experience first hand the passion, commitment and dedication of our staff, and see some of the conservation work that forms the backbone of ZSL.

"The cameras were here during some tough times, but also bore witness to some incredible achievements. Both the highs and lows capture the very essence of what makes ZSL such an amazing place to work, to visit and to support.

"We are certain that people who watch this documentary will walk away with a clear view of the hard work, the care, and the absolute steadfast commitment our staff have to the animals they look after in our zoos, and to the conservation of animals in the wild."

■ There are lots of spooky things going on at Whipsnade this week. See our Leisure section for more information.

Things are getting very scary down at the zoo

A new world to explore

SMALL WORLDS
The Hat Factory, Luton
Friday-Saturday, 11am

STEP inside the small world of Mimika Theatre's white canvas dome and into a beautiful landscape.

Meet six characters - a small green wriggly thing, a bug, a young goose, a fox cub, a cat and a six year old girl - and watch their six interweaving stories unfold. An unforgettable piece of visual theatre, fusing computer generated animation and digital projection with miniature landscapes, puppets and a highly evocative soundtrack.

Suitable for children aged five-11. Tickets cost from £3.50 and are available from the box office on 01582 878100.

SAY BOO AT THE ZOO

Whipsnade Zoo

Now until October 31

WHIPSNAD Zoo is the place to be this October half-term for some frighteningly good fun.

Spine-tingling spookiness is in store this year, to make Halloween special for all the family.

The zoo's very own animal-themed spook-tacular events will bring this season alive.

Children can perfect a blood-curdling wolf cry, with the help of their explainers at their fiendishly entertaining presentations, or learn about the mystical wolverine with its long sharp claws and marvel at its predatory nature.

It may sound scary, but bug handling in the activity room is not to be missed, where experienced staff will help you to overcome any fears of these fascinating creatures.

While there, visitors can create a Halloween-themed mask or other eerily-creative pictures.

Plus don't forget to pop into the decorated barn on the children's farm and get carving your free pumpkin with the help of our volunteers, a must for the haunting hour on Halloween.

All this, plus the zoo's amazing Birds of the World and Sealion Splash demonstrations taking place twice daily throughout the half term week and check out the zoo's cute new babies, the five cheetah cubs, bumper-sized Asian rhino calf and leggy zebra foal.

Salary: £25k-£30k basic, plus commission, company car and other benefits.

LSN Media is part of the Iliffe News and Media group and we publish market leading local newspapers in Beds, Bucks and Northants, alongside rapidly growing websites and a number of magazines and niche products.

The right candidate will have a proven track record of achievement in selling local/regional advertising within print or broadcast media and will lead our commercial team of around 13 people whilst working closely with the Editor and his team. The successful candidate will be responsible for the continued growth of advertising volumes and revenues within the newspaper, websites and other publications.

Experience leading and managing an advertising sales team is essential as well as the ability to build excellent working relationships quickly with key clients and our local public sector advertisers.

You'll also be responsible for helping to formulate local sales strategies to maximise all advertising revenue streams, as well as producing accurate revenue forecasts.

The successful candidate will have a real interest in online publishing and media and will be keen to build an online sales career going forward. Technical knowledge is not necessary but you will need to have the confidence, drive and enthusiasm to sell online advertising solutions to local clients both face to face and by telephone on a daily basis. You will also be expected to work very closely with editors and our sales teams across four local offices to help increase local advertisers spend on our websites, and to explain the benefits to them of combined advertising solutions across print and online.

OVER THE TOP: Leighton Baines clears the Tottenham wall to score with the spectacular free-kick and, inset, celebrates with Phil Jagielka

Never say Neville!

DAVID MOYES and Harry Redknapp were united in their praise for Phil Neville after the veteran Everton captain stopped man-of-the-moment Gareth Bale in his tracks.

Bale has been on fire this season, hitting new heights on Wednesday night with a stunning hat-trick in Spurs' Champions League defeat at Inter Milan and running Maicon – who many consider to be the world's best right-back – ragged.

But he was largely nullified by 33-year-old Neville yesterday, who used all of his 15 years' top-flight experience to keep the 21-year-old quiet.

Former Manchester United star Neville also helped Phil Jagielka double up on Peter Crouch, and Everton boss Moyes was delighted with the leadership his skipper showed. "I don't know if it's a dying breed, but he's a great leader," said

TOTTENHAM 1
EVERTON 1

Moyes. "The team seems to function much better with him. He might get to the stage where he might not be the best player but, certainly, the team needs his leadership qualities."

"You should hear him in the dressing room; you should see him before the game. He's a top man, he really is. He prepares himself right. That's why he's had 50-60 England caps and that's why he's got longevity in his career."

Opposite number Redknapp was equally effusive about a player whose ability has often been called into question. "Gareth's been murdering everybody," said Redknapp. "But I knew that Neville wouldn't be easy because he knows what he's doing. I think he's an under-rated player. I felt he did a decent job with Gareth, really – as good as anybody's done with him for a long time."

Moyes revealed he had made special provision for Bale and fellow talisman Rafael van der Vaart, who nevertheless scored for the fifth time in as many games to salvage a point for Spurs.

But the Scot added: "We can't say, 'We'll stop Bale' or 'We'll just stop Van der Vaart'. They've got players in all areas of the field that need taking care of."

Van der Vaart levelled less than three minutes after Leighton Baines had given Everton a 17th-minute lead.

Admitting the left-back probably would not have taken the free-kick had star midfielder Mikel Arteta been fit, Moyes said: "Baines does practise them and he's got that ability. It was nearly impossible to get it up and down."

Zabaleta fires a title warning

TODAY'S ACTION

Man City v Arsenal, 4pm, Sky Sports 1

PABLO ZABALETA is calling on Manchester City to make a statement about their own ambitions by dismantling Arsenal today.

City tackle the Gunners knowing victory would take them six points clear of Arsene Wenger's men and establish themselves as the most likely side to dethrone Chelsea this term. "This is a very important game for us," said City utility man Zabaleta. "If we could beat Arsenal it would send out a big message to the rest of the League.

"We have some fantastic players and results are going well.

"Everyone believes we can win trophies."

ZABALETA: 'Going well'

BARCLAYS PREMIER LEAGUE ROUND-UP

CHELSEA eased into a five-point lead at the top of the Premier League after a comfortable 2-0 victory over Wolves.

Florent Malouda put Chelsea in control with the opening goal at Stamford Bridge, firing home after good work from Yuri Zhirkov to join Manchester City's Carlos Tevez as the League's joint leading scorer on seven goals.

Salomon Kalou made it 2-0 late on, side-footing home after a one-two with Didier Drogba.

WEST BROM found themselves in the dizzy heights of the top four courtesy of a 2-1 win at home to FULHAM.

ASTON VILLA were left cursing their luck at Sunderland after losing 1-0 despite having the best of the match and having two decent-looking penalty claims turned down.

BIRMINGHAM were relatively untroubled at home to BLACKPOOL, winning 2-0 and it ended 1-1 between WIGAN and BOLTON with Wigan's James McCarthy carried off with a serious-looking injury. In the late game, NEWCASTLE beat WEST HAM 2-1 with Andy Carroll scoring the winner.

RUGBY UNION

Aviva Premiership

WASPS aim to make home advantage count today and prolong Northampton's misery at Adams Park.

The Saints will arrive in High Wycombe without a win there from nine previous visits, while Wasps last lost a home league fixture almost 10 months ago.

But it promises to be another tight encounter between two likely Premiership title play-off challengers.

Saints boss Jim Mallinder acknowledges that a testing afternoon awaits. "Wasps are a tough proposition away," he said. "They have a lot of experience and plenty of talent. We will have to play with control and impose our game."

MALLINDER: Control

Rovers have good Case for win but United stopper earns point

ZAMARETTO DIVISION ONE CENTRAL

WOODFORD UNITED 0
BARTON ROVERS 0

A DRAW away to opposition placed second in the table at the start of play can be viewed as a good result for Barton Rovers.

However the visitors had opportunities, particularly in the second half to take all three points.

A hard-fought first period produced few clear cut chances, but Rovers dominated the second session and were unfortunate not to score. Ricky Case was thwarted by excellent saves from the Woodford goalkeeper on 60 and 64 minutes, and Bilal Hassan also has an excellent opportunity saved at point blank range on 76 minutes.

The match then petered out to a goalless conclusion as the heavens opened.

Rovers are at home to Cambridge City on Tuesday evening in the first round of the Red Insure Cup, kick off 19.45 at Sharpenhoe Road. They then return to league action on Saturday away to Burnham.

FA CUP FOURTH QUALIFYING ROUND

LUTON TOWN 4
ST ALBANS CITY 0

A MAJESTIC second-half chip sealed a fantastic hat-trick for Amari Morgan-Smith as Luton Town easily overcame Conference South opposition to book their place in the first round of the FA Cup.

Danny Crow claimed Luton's other goal in a game that they dominated from the word go with St Albans City struggling to create any real threat with a flat and uninspiring display.

Saints, who earned the right to play at Kenilworth Road after victories over Beckenham Town and Kingstonian, came into the game with only one win to their name in the Blue Square Bet South this season leaving them hovering above their drop zone in 18th position.

Manager Richard Money showed he was well aware of the potential banana-skin that St Albans represented as he made only one change from the side that beat both Forest Green Rovers and Eastbourne Borough in the past week, as Claude Gnaka returned to the starting Luton XI in place of Andy Drury.

The game got off to a slow start, which gave the travelling supporters plenty of time to exchange pleasantries with the Luton faithful – which you'd expect from any local derby – but the first notable piece of action didn't come until after ten minutes.

Jake Howells whipped a free kick into the penalty area where George Pilkington rose highest – but the skipper's header went straight into the hands of Paul Bastock in the City net.

Luton looked comfortable in possession coming forward, but the final ball into the box was consistently disappointing and they could have been made to pay as City charged forward on the break which ended with Harry Beautyman unleashing a bobbling effort that needed a watchful eye from Mark Tyler to gather.

The Hatters took the lead on 23 minutes as Matthew Barnes-Homer played Gnaka through on the right.

The Frenchman's deep cross was touched by the fingertips of Bastock into the path of Morgan-Smith who side-footed home off the left hand post.

The young striker could have doubled his lead four minutes later after a delicate pass from Howells put him one-on-one with Bastock, but the striker dragged his shot agonisingly wide of the left post.

The Hatters were running the visitors ragged and in-form Crow added a second just after the half hour mark when a quick free-kick from 20 yards caught St Albans off-guard and landed in the bottom right corner.

The striker then played a part in the Hatters' third as his overhead kick sent Barnes-Homer scampering down the right flank to pick out Morgan-Smith who headed past a helpless Bastock at the back post.

With The Hertfordshire side offering absolutely nothing up front, Luton could taste blood and charged at their prey in wave after wave of attacks. A Barnes-Homer rocket went marginally wide, Bastock then got down well to keep out a low Gnaka drive and Crow fired wide after the City defence failed to clear Freddie Murray's cross.

Luton started the second half with a game plan of keeping St Albans at bay but a thunderous strike from Crow just past the hour could have stretched the Hatters lead further but the striker's effort came back off the underside of the bar and bounced to safety.

Six minutes later, the St Albans woodwork was rattled again as Gnaka turned inside two City defenders and fired his shot onto Bastock's near post. The rebound fell to Howells but the winger's weak effort was easily cleared off the line by a City defender.

It didn't take Dan Walker long to get into the action after replacing Crow for the second game in a row. And in similar circumstances to the Forest Green game in midweek, the youngster raced clear of the City defence to go through one-on-one with an out-rushing Bastock but the keeper challenged well with his feet to clear the danger.

The Saints had a rare opportunity to pull one back as Jean-Michel Sigere found himself in plenty of space to test Tyler but the striker's shot was tipped wide by him, in what was arguably the keeper's first save of the match. Walker continued to cause the City defence problems and the young striker, who opened his Town account in midweek with a piledriver, squared the ball to former St Albans player Godfrey Poku who blazed his effort over.

Further good work down the right from Walker allowed time and space for Morgan-Smith to execute a sensational chip from just outside the penalty box over a rooted Bastock for his fifth goal in five games for the Hatters, securing him the match ball.

SOUTH MIDLANDS PREMIER

A LATE equaliser prevented DUNSTABLE TOWN from taking all three points in this entertaining game away at Colney Heath which ended up 3-3.

The home side dominated the opening exchanges and had hit the post before scoring on 12 minutes.

Dunstable gradually weathered the storm and eventually equalised through Luke Lincoln on 37 minutes following a neat Luke Flood pass.

Paul Taylor in the Dunstable goal was in impressive form and it was due to his efforts that the visitors managed to keep the scores level at the break.

The hosts started the second half strongly but it was Town who took the lead on 62 minutes with Lincoln scoring again, this time following a Graeme Buchanan pass.

Colney Heath equalised on 75 minutes via a free header from a corner, but playmaker Buchanan crossed for Grant Carney to score on 79 minutes and give Dunstable a 3-2 lead.

However, the hosts levelled on 89 minutes with a low drive to deny Town victory.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIV ONE

CRAWLEY GREEN recorded a 4-0 win at home to Harpenden Town with all the goals coming in the first half.

Robbie O'Dell opened the scoring on five minutes.

Matt Baldry deflected a Stuart Strange shot home on 30 minutes to double the lead and Jermaine Hall scored from a rebound on 36 minutes following another shot from Strange.

Craig Savage then scored a superb goal from 25 yards on 43 minutes.

AFC DUNSTABLE recorded a 2-0 home win against Cockfosters to take their unbeaten run to 17 matches.

BJ Christie scored after just 12 seconds with his second goal coming 74 minutes later.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIV TWO

A LATE winner from Oliver Goundry saw 61FC win 4-3 at home to Mursley United.

Alex Bennett scored two and Aaron Lewis grabbed the third in the second half before Goundry's injury time header.

KENT ATHLETIC were robbed of a point after a 95th-minute free kick for Risborough Rangers meant they had to settle for a 1-1 draw. Junior George had grabbed Kent's goal as early as the seventh minute.

BRACHE SPARTA lost 4-1 to Aston Clinton with Tunde Aderomnu scoring the opening goal.

CADDINGTON also lost to Winslow 3-1 at home with Paul Smith scoring the hosts' only goal.

TOTTERNHOE'S match away against Bucks Student Union was cancelled as it transpires that the Students have withdrawn from the league.

my football and I think that's showing."

Towards the end of last season, the defender formed a formidable trio on the left flank with Jake Howells and Tom Craddock. There have been personnel changes since then, but Murray (pictured) is still often seen bombing down the wing and linking up with the attack.

He feels that's the benefit of Money's philosophy on how the game should be played.

"I think the full back's role has changed over the last ten years," he said. "They are now a big attacking threat, especially because you can make late runs and get into the attacking half undetected at times."

"I enjoy that part of my game, but I also know that it's an addition to being a good defender and doing a solid job."

"It's the type of position that I do enjoy and in the type of team we are playing in at the moment, the manager gives freedom to the full backs to go and join in, which is great because some managers don't do that."

"We are lucky here that there are two full backs who like to join in and we are encouraged to do that."

Skipper Allen caps superb second half

NATIONAL MIDLANDS THREE

AN outstanding second-half performance made the long journey north worthwhile for LUTON who secured a 53-17 victory over Scunthorpe.

The teams actually went in level at the break with a 17-17 scoreline. Alex Sutherland, Mick Stevens and Shaun Mahoney were the first-half try scorers with Aidan Kenny adding two conversions.

However the second half saw Luton play their best rugby of the season.

Their pace and intensity overwhelmed the hosts and Luton scored 36 further points without reply.

George Woodford scored a converted try to take the score to 24-17, and this was followed by another try from Dan Blinkhorn.

Jimmy Speirs added a drop goal to move the score to 32-17 and replacement Alex Cuihleus scored a converted try soon after.

Mahoney scored his second try of the afternoon which was converted to take the score to 46-17, and captain Matt Allen then scored the final converted try.

Luton, currently fifth in the league, entertain seventh-placed Malvern next Saturday.

MIDLANDS ONE EAST

A DISAPPOINTING 31-10 defeat for DUNSTABLIANS away at Derbyshire side Matlock sees them remain rooted to the bottom of the table.

Matlock sat just one place above Dees in the table yesterday morning so this was an opportunity to make up some ground.

However all Dunstablians had to show for their first-half efforts was a Kieron Leech penalty.

Scott Oliver did score a second half try, which was converted by Leech, but the hosts ran out comfortable winners.

Struggling Newark are the visitors to Bidwell Park next Saturday in what is surely a must-win game for Dunstablians as they struggle to get some momentum into their season.

MIDLANDS TWO EAST (SOUTH)

STUTTERING form of late sees STOCKWOOD PARK remain in the lower regions of the table after losing 29-15 at home to Northampton Mens Own.

With two league wins, and three losses, Stockwood have been struggling to get away from the starting blocks this season.

The visitors had taken the lead within eight minutes after two quick tries saw them 12-0 up.

Captain Steve Pollock kicked a try soon after followed by Peter Edwards touching down with Pollock converting.

The half-time score was 12-10 with everything to play for.

The second period saw Northampton camped in Stockwood's territory and by 70 minutes they had a firm 24-10 lead.

Chasing the bonus point, Casey Waterfield finished off Jamie Newell's good move down the wing to close the gap to 24-15 late on.

But Northampton finished the game off with a last minute try.

Stockwood Park host Vipers next Saturday.

Boxing world salutes stalwart Turner with rare gong

BOXING

THE man who helped teach Graham Earl and countless others to box has been honoured by the World Boxing Council (WBC) with a plaque and a medal for his services to boxing in Luton.

Jim Turner, 77, has dedicated five decades of his life to the sport after moving to the town from Northern Ireland in the early sixties.

A fighter then trainer of a number of clubs in the town, he is now associated with the Shamrock Boxing Club on Old Bedford Road and, according to his proud son Mervyn, 'is still there most nights'.

Turner was last week presented with a plaque and medal by former British, European and world welterweight champion John H Stracey and the Mayor of Luton, Tom Shaw, all courtesy of WBC president Jose Sulaiman.

It is only the fourth time the award has ever been presented in Europe and has to be given a yes vote by every head of the 64 federations worldwide.

He was also in Earl's corner right through his amateur days and for his first 12 fights as a professional before linking up again in 2008 when he fought Amir Khan.

The former lightweight world champion, himself now a trainer, manager and promoter has said that no-one deserves recognition more than Turner.

HONOURED: Jim Turner (right) with his award and former world champion John H. Stracey with the WBU world title belt, while Vitali Klitschko (inset) accepts the award on Turner's behalf in Cardiff

"I'm very close with Jim," said Earl. "I started my career with him and his award is well deserved."

"He's in the sport for all the right reasons and has certainly put a lot of service in."

"He'd often be up in the early hours working before going to the gym, and he'd stay there until about ten o'clock at night."

"He was stern and there was no messing about with him but it couldn't have gone to a better man."

Turner was originally due to receive the gong during a WBC convention in Cardiff in July – the largest boxing festival in European history.

Ill health prevented him from going, but heavyweight champion of the world Vitali Klitschko accepted the award on his behalf while Jose Sulaiman – the WBC chairman – praised him in a letter to Luton Mayor Mr Shaw, saying: 'Jim Turner has changed many of Luton's young peoples lived for the better and he has directly steered many children away from gangs, crime, alcohol and drugs.'

'He has helped improve the quality of their life and helped some make better informed life decisions.'

"Without people like Jim Turner we would not have the champions of today and tomorrow. Jim has been a great role model and ambassador for the sport."

'The award is to recognise all his hard work and dedication. Jim has dedicated his life to boxing and the World Boxing Council wanted to recognise Jim Turner's contribution.'

'Congratulations Jim and keep up the good work. May your legacy last for generations to come so young people in Luton can reap the rewards of your knowledge.'

Luton won't block Gallen becoming a Bees player

LUTON TOWN'S plentiful attacking options are the reason why manager Richard Money has let veteran Kevin Gallen go on loan to League Two Barnet.

The former QPR striker has joined the Bees until January 8, after only appearing in six Blue Square Bet Premier games this season for the Hatters.

The 35-year-old was eligible to play in Barnet's 1-0 victory over Macclesfield Town yesterday and came off the bench to play the final 25 minutes.

After the Hatters' 4-0 FA Cup Fourth Qualifying round victory over St Albans yesterday, Money said: "I think it should given him [Gallen] a chance to play."

"He's at the stage of his career where he wants to play and needs to play and we can't give him it here at this moment in time."

"There might be an opportunity where Barnet want to extend [the loan deal] and we won't stand in his way if that's the case. He's a top bloke and we like him a lot and we want him to do well."

The competition for places up front is fierce at Kenilworth Road with Danny Crow bagging his fifth in three games yesterday and Amari Morgan-Smith's hat-trick against the Saints making it five goals in his first five Town starts.

Add to that to the nine goals of Matthew Barnes-Homer this term and the growing potential of 20-year-old Dan Walker and it seemed inevitable that Gallen would move on.

"It's not just the front two," said Money. "We've really kept the reigns on Dan Walker and waited for our opportunity and he looks as though he could develop into something quite exciting."

"He gives everyone a lift when he comes on the pitch. He's got real pace and energy and he might have scored one or two again."

"He looks as though he's a very good substitute at this moment in time and whether or not he can take the next step remains to be seen."

"I like Claude [Gnakpa] at the top as well. I've got Taiwo [Atieno] coming back from injury, so we've got a few options."

"Morgan-Smith can play up top as well, so in the end you've got to give people a chance to play and Kevin falls in that category."

Freddie ready to sign a new deal

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

ian.ryan@lutononsunday.com

FREDDIE Murray is hoping to thrash out a contract to remain at Luton Town after admitting being at Kenilworth Road is the happiest period of his career to date.

The full back has been a virtual ever-present in manager Richard Money's teams this season, playing in all but two Conference games and after getting Jake Howells to agree a new two-year deal last week, the Hatters chief said he is in talks with the Irishman and keeper Mark Tyler.

"It's always nice to be rewarded with that type of gesture," said Murray. "I've told the manager that I want to stay here. I'm enjoying my football now more than I ever have, so I don't see any reason to leave or to have my head turned."

"I hope to sit down with them in the future and get something sorted."

The 28-year-old has arguably been one of Town's most consistent performers and he credits a full pre-season programme in helping him hit a rich vein of form.

He said: "I signed my contract after Christmas last year and I felt that my form was good [from then] because of the stability that I had. I didn't have a pre-season last year, so with a good one this season I think that my fitness is a little bit better."

"The longer you spend at a club, the more

you can settle in and relax. You understand what the manager and your team-mates are about. I'm confident in the side at the moment and, touch wood, everybody stays fit and there's no reason why we can't have a successful season."

"I'm pleased with my own form. I'm always very critical of my performance after any game, but I feel I'm in a decent vein of form this season. I'm playing with good players and decent wide men."

"I've got a good relationship with the players around me and I'm enjoying
